Notes

This is always a messy round for division one with three double headers which skews the points at this early stage. I think all three teams involved would be happy enough with their results. Hutt Valley Had two wins, collecting twenty points. They lost the open in both matches but won the rest and collected bonus points. Otago showed they can foot it in division one by wining another open match but Manawatu would be disappointed not to get closer in the composite and juniors. The Plainsmen won both their matches as well with maximum points against Eastern Force who are having a horror start to the competition. In their second match The Plainsmen Lost the open to Waikato but banked the rest of the points to win narrowly. Waikato Had a good win against Canterbury to compensate for the loss to The Plainsmen and are now top of the table. It is strange to see Manawatu so far down the list but they have the double header in the last round so expect a late run from them.

In division two Wellington scored a good win against Southland just conceding the composite and retaining their place at the top of the table. Marlborough scored a good win against just losing the composite to specialists Wanganui in a low scoring match. Taranaki showed Nelson how its done with the best open score of the night in both divisions but missed a clean sweep by inners in the composite.

The highlight of the scoring this week was a second 300 from Lindsay Arthur and 200's from Robbie McNair, Roy Herbison, Dave Fake and Steven Lye. In the juniors the were 100's from Susan Sharp Hailey Beevor and Brad Lawson.
